

Amendments

1.

there is a place for proposals called the "hub," all proposals must be given at stated location, Proposal may also be written down and shown to people if the piece is too loud.

2.

there is a living document called the "history" which shows any grievance and proposal given. Histories should be written in the color of the player which the action is relevant to.

3.

Any item that is in a performance can be taken and incorporated into another performance

4.

Those who break the rules and are found out, receive the "punishment." Which involves gasping inwards with open eyes/raised eyebrows and pointing at them in the style of "the invasion of the body snatchers."